

reflexive pronouns / each other

Put in 'each other' or a reflexive pronoun (himself, ourselves, ...).

1. My friends enjoyed _____ at the rock concert.
2. Yesterday Peter bought _____ a new phone.
3. Listen to Pamela. She is talking to _____.
4. Catherina and Cindy always write to _____ in English.
5. Linda and Chris do their homework _____ because they want to learn something.
6. Ron and Stella are talking to _____ on the phone.
7. Nick repaired his bike _____.
8. I don't think we can repair the bike _____. Let's take it to the bike shop.
9. Sue Ellen is looking at _____ in the mirror.
10. Kate and Sandra are looking at _____.

reflexive pronouns / each other (solution)

Put in 'each other' or a reflexive pronoun (himself, ourselves, ...).

1. My friends enjoyed themselves at the rock concert.
2. Yesterday Peter bought himself a new phone.
3. Listen to Pamela. She is talking to herself.
4. Catherina and Cindy always write to each other in English.
5. Linda and Chris do their homework themselves because they want to learn something.
6. Ron and Stella are talking to each other on the phone.
7. Nick repaired his bike himself.
8. I don't think we can repair the bike ourselves. Let's take it to the bike shop.
9. Sue Ellen is looking at herself in the mirror.
10. Kate and Sandra are looking at each other.