modals (must not / don't have to / doesn't have to)

Put in: must not   –   don't have to   –   doesn't have to

It is Saturday morning. Mrs Miller is making breakfast. Steve is there, too.

Mrs Miller:

1. No, Kate _____ go to school today. It's Saturday.

2. No, thank you. Steve. You _____ go to the door. I can do that.

3. No, thank you. You _____ help me. Kate can do that.

4. Oh no, you _____ wash the toast!

5. Steve, you _____ sing. David is sleeping.

6. Oh no, Steve, you _____ take that box. It's too big. I can take it.

7. No, you _____ take the cups from the cupboard. They're too high for you in the cupboard. Your dad can do that.

modals (must not / don't have to / doesn't have to) (solution)

Put in: must not   –   don't have to   –   doesn't have to

It is Saturday morning. Mrs Miller is making breakfast. Steve is there, too.

Mrs Miller:

1. No, Kate _____doesn't have to_____ go to school today. It's Saturday.

2. No, thank you. Steve. You _____don't have to_____ go to the door. I can do that.

3. No, thank you. You _____don't have to_____ help me. Kate can do that.

4. Oh no, you _____must not_____ wash the toast!

5. Steve, you _____must not_____ sing. David is sleeping.

6. Oh no, Steve, you _____don't have to_____ take that box. It's too big. I can take it.

7. No, you _____don't have to_____ take the cups from the cupboard. They're too high for you in the cupboard. Your dad can do that.