

Clara's email – there was/were (simple past)

Put in was or were.

Hello Anna,

1. There _____ an open bus in Exeter, and there _____ great beaches in Newquay.
2. There _____ a lot of boring boys, but there _____ no boring day at the seaside.
3. In Wales there _____ only one sunny day, but there _____ no toilets at the beaches.
4. There _____ no playgrounds in Cardigan, but there _____ a nice lake behind our hotel.
5. There _____ two interesting boys from Dover at the lake, but there _____ no disco in Cardigan. So there _____ an unhappy girl in Wales. Her name:

Clara

Clara's email – there was/were (simple past) (solution)

Put in was or were.

Hello Anna,

1. There was an open bus in Exeter, and there were great beaches in Newquay.
2. There were a lot of boring boys, but there was no boring day at the seaside.
3. In Wales there was only one sunny day, but there were no toilets at the beaches.
4. There were no playgrounds in Cardigan, but there was a nice lake behind our hotel.
5. There were two interesting boys from Dover at the lake, but there was no disco in Cardigan. So there was an unhappy girl in Wales. Her name:

Clara