

Sightseeing in London (simple past – positive statements)

Some kids went on a trip to London. At the end of the week they phone their parents to tell them about it.

Put in the past forms of the correct verbs.

to take – to buy – to get – to go

Kelly: I _____ some second-hand shirts at Camden Market. On my way back into the city I _____ _____ lost on the Underground. I _____ the wrong line and _____ to Brixton. – Not a nice place.

to go – to be – to come – to stop – to open – to visit

Steve: I _____ Tower Bridge and _____ up to the walkway in a lift. Everything _____ _____ so small. Suddenly all buses and cars _____. Then the bridge _____ and a ship _____ _____ through.

to arrive – to decide – to be

Brian and Tom: Our room _____ not ready when we _____ at our hotel. So we _____ _____ to do a sight-seeing tour.

to be – to see – to walk

Jenny and Clara: We _____ the Tower. We only _____ around it. The tickets _____ _____ too expensive – £8.50 for a child.

Sightseeing in London (simple past – positive statements) (solution)

Some kids went on a trip to London. At the end of the week they phone their parents to tell them about it.

Put in the past forms of the correct verbs.

to take – to buy – to get – to go

Kelly: I bought some second-hand shirts at Camden Market. On my way back into the city I got lost on the Underground. I took the wrong line and went to Brixton. – Not a nice place.

to go – to be – to come – to stop – to open – to visit

Steve: I visited Tower Bridge and got up to the walkway in a lift. Everything was so small. Suddenly all buses and cars stopped. Then the bridge opened and a ship went through.

to arrive – to decide – to be

Brian and Tom: Our room was not ready when we arrived at our hotel. So we decided to do a sight-seeing tour.

to be – to see – to walk

Jenny and Clara: We saw the Tower. We only walked around it. The tickets were too expensive – £8.50 for a child.